

House Coordinator Application Form

Thank you for choosing to fill out an application to the House Coordinator role at Romero House. We look forward to learning more about you and what draws you to this role. Please email your completed application to: housecoordinator@romerohouse.org. If you are applying with someone else, such as a friend or partner, each person should complete a separate application form.

The House Coordinator Application Review Committee

Basic information	Full name: <hr/> Gender pronouns: <hr/> Email address: <hr/> Phone number: <hr/> Address: <hr/> Date of birth: <hr/> How did you hear about Romero House and this opportunity? Please list sources by name:
Vision	Why do you want to live and serve at Romero House? <hr/> What do you hope to give to the community? What do you hope to receive? <hr/> Looking at the types of activities described in the Volunteer House Coordinator Role Description, how do you imagine yourself participating in the community?

Community living	What have been your previous experiences of living in community? What was negative and what was positive? These could be experiences with roommates, family, intentional community, spiritual community, traveling, or other experiences. <hr/> What are you comfortable sharing? What are you uncomfortable sharing? We share various things in our community—with each other and with the families that live in Romero House’s transitional housing. This can include common rooms, laundry facilities, kitchens, bathrooms, gardens, yard space, vehicles, and some groceries.
Other relevant experience	What experiences do you have that will support you in this role? This could be education, jobs, volunteer work, or any other positions of responsibility, paid or unpaid. <hr/> What languages do you speak and what is your level of proficiency? <hr/> Do you have a driver’s license? Would you be willing to drive the Romero House vehicles with passengers for community events?

Experience connecting across difference	What experience do you have with people of nationalities and cultures other than your own? Romero House has a rich variety of identities, beliefs, and life experiences. <hr/> What works for you in connecting with people who are different from you? <hr/> Where do you struggle with these connections? <hr/> What supports you in making meaningful connections?
Life outside of Romero House	Are you able to make a time commitment of 5-10 hours per week to life at Romero House? Living at Romero House is a commitment to live in a community of service. Like many intentional communities, there are various responsibilities such as attending and facilitating meetings, sharing in chores, and participating in the social life of the community. Romero House has the added dimension of also being a community that is called to serve refugee claimants and comes with additional responsibilities, such as collaborating with the staff to support residents in their immigration and settlement journeys. The amount of time spent here can really vary depending on the needs of the families living at Romero House and the skills and interests of the House Coordinator. <hr/> What other time commitments do you have in your life? This could be work, school, family, volunteering, hobbies, activism, faith community, social life, alone time, etc.

Spiritual life and values	How would you describe your religious or spiritual life, if any? How are your personal convictions and values expressed or present in your life?
Preferences re: housing	Do you have a preference between sharing a unit or having a private unit? Are you flexible? For those who have lived at Romero House: Please rank the houses in terms of preference from first to last and note any caveats.
Closing	What fears or concerns do you have about living in this type of community?
	Do you have any questions for us?
	Is there anything else you'd like to tell us?